The Missouri Sentencing Advisory Commission is pleased to present the enclosed advisory sentencing guidelines. The Commission was charged with establishing a system of recommended sentences for felony offenses. The advisory guidelines, in keeping with § 558.019 RSMo, are based upon the statutory ranges for each felony classification, prior criminal history and resources of the Department of Corrections. They reflect extended ranges and mandatory minimums. Minimum percentage time served requirements were also taken into consideration.

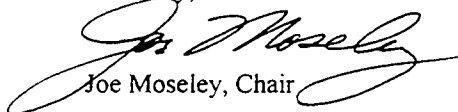

The advisory guidelines represent a rational and consistent schedule for sentencing based upon the seriousness of the offense and the level of prior criminal history. The length of the recommended sentences increase as the level of prior criminal history increases and as the seriousness of the crime increases.

The Commission respects the need for judicial discretion in sentencing, and as such, was careful to incorporate discretion into the guidelines. Judicial discretion is built into the guidelines through the use of sentencing ranges for all presumptive sentences, the use of aggravating and mitigating sentences, which are often ranges, and by suggesting a variety of alternative sanctions as appropriate.

There is a variety of ways to impose punishment. Prison is the preferred way to punish violent and repeat offenders. However, prison beds are a limited resource. The Commission places great emphasis on the responsible use of alternative sanctions. Appropriate use of alternative sanctions for non-violent and many drug offenses will result in the parsimonious use of prison beds. As mandated in the authorizing statute, the availability of correctional resources was a legitimate consideration in drafting sentencing guidelines. It is imperative to the success of these advisory guidelines, that they be used consistently whenever possible so that they achieve the goal of intelligent use of correctional resources.

It is the sincere hope of the Commission that you will consistently consult the guidelines when making decisions regarding sentencing. The Commission is very interested in your comments and suggestions for future revisions of the guidelines. The Commission is additionally charged with studying the adoption of the advisory guidelines and will provide formal feedback to you periodically.

Sincerely,

Joe Moseley, Chair

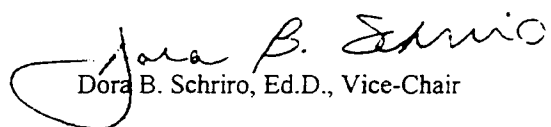

Dora B. Schriro, Ed.D., Vice-Chair

INTRODUCTION

Senate Bill 763, which was passed and signed by Governor Carnahan in 1994, transformed the already existing Sentencing Commission in §558.019 RSMo, into the Sentencing Advisory Commission. The new commission was given the additional charge of developing a system of recommended sentences. The commission worked diligently to arrive at the enclosed recommended sentencing grids.

HISTORY OF INCREASING TIME SERVED AND SENTENCE LENGTHS

On average in 1992, inmates committed to prison in Missouri served longer sentences than inmates in all other states. Nationally, felons served 30 months; in Missouri inmates served 49.58 months. Moreover, in every charge category, inmates served a substantially greater percentage of their sentence imposed by the Court (50.8% vs. 38%).

Two years earlier in 1990, felons served 28.5 months nationally and 40.83 months in Missouri. The percentage served was 38% nationally and 55% in Missouri.

The most notable change was the average sentence length imposed by the Court. In 1990 our judges issued an average sentence of 74.31 months; nationally, it was 75 months. In 1992 our state's courts had jumped to 97.4 months while nationally the average increased by four months to 79 month sentences on average.

AUTHORIZING STATUTE --- §558.019.6 RSMo

(NOTE: This section is not the official code. The official code sections are found in the Revised Statutes of Missouri as published by the Joint Committee on Legislative Research.)

...6. (1) A sentencing advisory commission is hereby created to consist of eleven members. One member shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. One member shall be appointed by the president pro tem of the senate. One member shall be the director of the department of corrections. Six members shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor from among the following: the public defender commission; private citizens; a private member of the Missouri Bar; the board of probation and parole; and a prosecutor. Two members shall be appointed by the supreme court, one from a metropolitan area and one from a rural area. All members of the sentencing commission appointed prior to August 28, 1994, shall continue to serve on the sentencing advisory commission at the pleasure of the governor.

(2) The commission shall study sentencing practices in the circuit courts throughout the state for the purpose of determining whether and to what extent disparities exist among the various circuit courts with respect to the length of sentences imposed and the use of probation for defendants convicted of the same or similar crimes and with similar criminal histories. The commission shall also study and examine whether and to what extent sentencing disparity among economic and social classes exists in relation to the sentence of death and if so, the reasons therefor. It shall compile statistics, examine cases, draw conclusions, and perform other duties relevant to the research and investigation of disparities in death penalty sentencing among economic and social classes.

(3) The commission shall establish a system of recommended sentences, within the statutory minimum and maximum sentences provided by law for each felony committed under the laws of this state. This system of recommended sentences shall be distributed to all sentencing courts within the state of Missouri. The recommended sentence for each crime shall take into account, but not be limited to, the following factors:

- (a) The nature and severity of each offense;
- (b) The record of prior offenses by the offender;
- (c) The data gathered by the commission showing the duration and nature of sentences imposed for each crime; and
- (d) The resources of the department of corrections and other authorities to carry out the punishments that are imposed.

(4) The commission shall publish and distribute its system of recommended sentences on or before July 1, 1995. The commission shall study the implementation and use of the system of recommended sentences until July 1, 1998, and return a final report to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president pro tem of the senate. Following the July 1, 1998, report, the commission may revise the recommended sentences every three years.

(5) The governor shall select a chairperson who shall call meetings of the commission as required or permitted pursuant to the purpose of the sentencing commission.

(6) The members of the commission shall not receive compensation for their duties on the commission, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of these duties and for which they are not reimbursed by reason of their other paid positions.

(7) The circuit and associate circuit courts of this state, the office of the state courts administrator, the department of public safety, and the department of corrections shall cooperate with the commission by providing information or access to information needed by the commission. The office of the state courts administrator will provide needed staffing resources.

PRIOR CRIMINAL HISTORY LEVELS

- I No prior term of incarceration AND no more than 1 prior unrelated felony finding of guilt.
- II 1 prior term of incarceration OR 2 or more prior unrelated felony findings of guilt.
- III 3 prior unrelated felony findings of guilt including at least 1 prior term of incarceration.
(This level contains sentences that reflect extended ranges authorized pursuant to section 558.016.7 RSMo.)
- IV 4 or more prior unrelated felony findings of guilt including at least 1 prior term of incarceration. (This level contains sentences that reflect extended ranges authorized pursuant to section 558.016.7 RSMo.)

(NOTE: 4 or more prior class A or B misdemeanor findings of guilt = 1 prior felony finding of guilt [excluding traffic offenses].)

KEY TO ALTERNATIVE SANCTIONS

- A May be appropriate for Deferred Prosecution (prosecutor's consideration).
- B May be appropriate for Primary Supervision (probation) --
Electronic Monitoring Program (EMP), Residential Treatment Facility (RTF), or Day Reporting may be used in conjunction when appropriate.
- C May be appropriate for Intensive Supervision (probation) --
Day Reporting may be used in conjunction at prior criminal history levels I & II;
C-1 indicates a recommendation of EMP to be used in conjunction;
C-2 indicates a recommendation of a RTF to be used in conjunction.
- D May be Appropriate for Post Conviction Drug Treatment Program.
- E May be Appropriate for the Regimented Discipline Program (§217.378).
- F May be Appropriate for 120 Day Shock Incarceration Program (SIP)--
Day Reporting may be used in conjunction at prior criminal history level II;
F-1 indicates a recommendation of EMP to be used in conjunction;
F-2 indicates a recommendation of RTF to be used in conjunction.
- G Recommend Referral to the Sexual Offender Assessment Unit (SOAU)
Prior to Sentencing.
- H May be Appropriate for an Institutional Treatment Center (120 Day program) --
H-1 indicates a recommendation of EMP to be used in conjunction;
H-2 indicates a recommendation of an RTF to be used in conjunction.
- I May be Appropriate for the 2 year Cocaine Program (§217.362).
- J May be Appropriate for 120 Day Intermittent Shock Sentence.
- cj Recommend consideration of county jail time of 1 day to 1 year in lieu of a prison sentence.

NOTE: This list does not contain all possible alternatives. Use of other alternatives which are available is encouraged. These may include fines, local treatment programs, and weekend or night incarceration.

USING THE RECOMMENDED SENTENCING GRIDS

Two grids are contained in this manual. One contains the recommended sentencing ranges for all non-chapter 195 offenses. This grid is found on pages 7-8. The other contains the recommended sentencing ranges for all chapter 195 offenses. This grid is found on page 9.

The appropriate cell can be found by determining the row (offense) and column (prior criminal history level). The cell found at the intersection of the row and column will contain the recommended sentencing ranges. Included in each cell is a presumptive sentencing range, an aggravated range, a mitigated range and any alternative sentencing options that may be appropriate.

The numbers found in each cell represent the recommended sentencing range in years. When the presumptive range includes the maximum sentence allowable by law, no aggravated range is given. When the presumptive range includes probation, no mitigated range is given.

The presumptive range is the recommended sentencing range for a typical case, in which aggravating and mitigating factors do not exist. (Aggravating and mitigating factors are listed on pages 16-17.)

Sentences should not be chosen on the basis of race, gender, economic or social status. Rather, they should be based on the crime, prior criminal history and aggravating or mitigating factors.

LOCATE THE OFFENSE

Locate the offense on the grid. The offenses are listed vertically in the first column of the grid beginning with class A felonies and ending with class D felonies. Any offense which is not listed separately is considered to be included in the “all other” box according to classification level.

(Example: Stealing is not listed on the grid separately so it is included in the “All Other Class C Felony” category.)

ATTEMPT TO COMMIT AN OFFENSE

Unless otherwise provided by statute, attempts to commit an offense should be handled in accordance with §564.011 RSMo, in the following fashion:

OFFENSE	CATEGORY ON GRID TO USE
Attempt to Commit a Class A Felony	All Other Class B Felonies
Attempt to Commit a Class B Felony	All Other Class C Felonies
Attempt to Commit a Class C Felony	All Other Class D Felonies

CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT AN OFFENSE

Unless otherwise provided by statute, in accordance with §564.016 RSMo, conspiracies to commit an offense should be handled in the following fashion:

OFFENSE	CATEGORY ON GRID TO USE
Conspiracy to Commit a Class A Felony	All Other Class B Felonies
Conspiracy to Commit a Class B Felony	All Other Class C Felonies
Conspiracy to Commit a Class C Felony	All Other Class D Felonies

UNCLASSIFIED CRIMES

When sentencing for a crime which is unclassified, refer to §557.021 RSMo to define classification for the purposes of these advisory sentencing guidelines.

DETERMINE PRIOR CRIMINAL HISTORY LEVEL

The horizontal axis, or top, of the grid contains the prior criminal history levels. Four levels are used. Level I includes offenders who have no prior terms of incarceration and have no more than one prior unrelated felony finding of guilt. Level II includes offenders who have one prior term of incarceration or two or more prior unrelated felony findings of guilt. Level III includes offenders who have three prior unrelated felony findings of guilt including at least one prior term of incarceration. Level IV includes offenders who have four or more prior unrelated felony findings of guilt including at least one prior term of incarceration.

The following definitions apply when determining the prior criminal history level:

- A “prior term of incarceration” means that a person has served a prior period of incarceration of over 120 days on a felony conviction in a state or federal correctional facility.
- A “prior unrelated felony finding of guilt” means a conviction or finding of guilt for a felony offense which is remote in time and/or place from the current offense. (NOTE: If there is a state and a federal finding of guilt for the same conduct, only the state finding of guilt shall be counted toward prior criminal history.)

OUT-OF-STATE FINDINGS OF GUILT

Any out-of-state finding of guilt for a crime which would be considered a felony in the state of Missouri shall be used in determining the prior criminal history level. Any out-of-state finding of guilt for a crime which would be considered a class A or class B misdemeanor in the state of Missouri shall be counted toward determining the prior criminal history level in the same manner as Missouri misdemeanor findings of guilt. Any out-of-state juvenile adjudications may apply as an aggravating factor, but not toward the prior criminal history level. If there is both a federal and a state finding of guilt for the same conduct, only the state finding of guilt shall be considered in determining prior criminal history.

FEDERAL FINDINGS OF GUILT

Any federal finding of guilt for a crime which would be considered a felony in the state of Missouri, shall be used in determining the prior criminal history level. If there is both a federal and a state finding of guilt for the same conduct, only the state finding of guilt shall be considered in determining prior criminal history. Any federal finding of guilt for a crime which would be considered a class A or class B misdemeanor in the state of Missouri shall be counted toward determining the prior criminal history level in the same manner as a Missouri misdemeanor finding of guilt. Any federal juvenile adjudications may apply as an aggravating factor, but not toward the prior criminal history level.

MISDEMEANOR FINDINGS OF GUILT

Four or more prior Class A or B misdemeanor findings of guilt are equal to one prior felony finding of guilt (excluding traffic offenses) for the purposes of determining the prior criminal history level.

JUVENILE ADJUDICATIONS

For the purposes of determining the prior criminal history levels, prior juvenile adjudications are not relevant. However, a record of prior serious juvenile offenses may be considered as an aggravating factor.

MULTIPLE PRIOR FINDINGS OF GUILT

Findings of guilt of multiple counts from one course of criminal conduct which involved one geographic location and one set of victims shall only count as one prior finding of guilt for the purpose of determining the prior criminal history level. Multiple findings of guilt from one course of criminal conduct that involved separate geographic locations and sets of victims shall be counted individually in determining the prior criminal history level.

SUBSTANTIAL PERIODS OF CRIME-FREE LIVING

Any substantial periods of crime free living, as determined by the sentencing judge, shall be considered a mitigating factor in determining the sentence. Time served under sentence shall not be considered as part of the substantial period.

CONSIDER AGGRAVATING AND MITIGATING FACTORS

The court may, in its discretion, impose a sentence from the aggravated or mitigated recommended ranges upon a finding of the existence of an aggravating or mitigating factor.

(A pre-sentence investigation is recommended prior to asserting for the purpose of imposing the recommended aggravated or mitigated sentence range.)

AGGRAVATING FACTORS

1. The offender offered or has agreed to accept or has given or received anything of value for the commission of the offense, an element of which does not already involve acceptance of the item of value.
2. The offender's conduct was especially heinous, atrocious, or cruel.
3. The defendant knowingly created a great risk of death or serious physical injury to more than one person.
4. The defendant was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of a crime, an element of which does not already involve the use of a dangerous or deadly weapon.
5. The defendant committed the offense while on pretrial release or under supervision or control of a state, local, or federal authority on another charge.
6. The defendant has a record of adjudications for serious juvenile offenses.
7. The offense involved violation of a public trust.
8. Any other aggravating factor/s reasonably related to the purposes of sentencing, as specified by the court.

MITIGATING FACTORS

1. The defendant has made, or is making, restitution to the victim.
2. The defendant aided in the apprehension of another felon or testified truthfully on behalf of the prosecution in another prosecution of a felony.
3. For offenses related to drug or alcohol dependency, the defendant has agreed to enter, or has entered, and is currently involved in, or has successfully completed, a drug treatment program or an alcohol treatment program and there is a plan for continuing relapse prevention.
4. Immediately prior to the current offense, the defendant has had a substantial period of crime-free living. (Time served under sentence shall not be considered as part of the substantial period.)
5. The defendant exercised caution to avoid risk of injury to others.
6. Any other mitigating factor/s reasonably related to the purposes of sentencing, as specified by the court (i.e. the defendant has accepted responsibility for his/her criminal conduct).

The alternative options listed here include only those provided by the Department of Corrections. The sentencing court should also consider any additional local options where available and appropriate. Additional options may include fines, night jail, or weekend jail. The court should also consider suspended imposition or suspended execution of sentence under §557.011 RSMo.

IMPOSE A SENTENCE

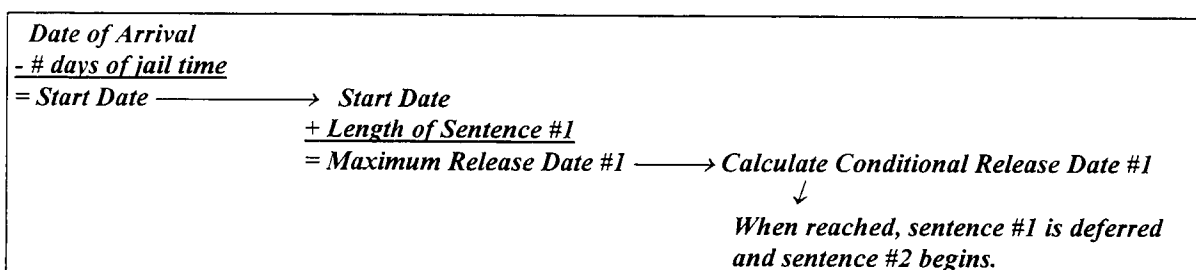

After locating the offense, determining the prior criminal history level, considering aggravating and mitigating factors, and considering alternative options, a sentence should be chosen either from the presumptive, aggravated or mitigated ranges, or from the list of alternative options. Please note that in some cases, state statute may preempt the imposition of a sentence as found on the guidelines. A list of such provisions is provided on pages 25-28.

CONSECUTIVE AND CONCURRENT SENTENCES

These guidelines do not indicate any preferences for imposing sentences consecutively or concurrently. Discretion for that decision lies with the sentencing judge. It is important to note, however, the manner in which consecutive and concurrent sentences are calculated at the Department of Corrections.

CONSECUTIVE SENTENCES

Beginning with the date of arrival of the offender at the Reception and Diagnostic Center, the number of days of jail time is subtracted to arrive at the start date. To the start date, the length of sentence #1 is added to find the maximum release date for sentence #1. From this, the conditional release date is calculated based on length of sentence. (See §558.011 RSMo) When the conditional release date is reached on sentence #1, that sentence is deferred and the consecutive sentence #2 begins.

CONCURRENT SENTENCES

Beginning with the date of arrival of the offender at the Reception and Diagnostic Center, the number of days of jail time is subtracted to arrive at the start date. The length of the longer sentence is added to the start date to get the maximum release date. From this, the conditional release term is calculated based on length of the sentence. (See §558.011 RSMo)

Date of Arrival
- # days of jail time
= Start Date	→ Start Date
	+ Length of Longer Sentence
	= Maximum Release Date
	→ Calculate Conditional Release Date

OTHER SENTENCING PROVISIONS

The revised statutes of Missouri contain mandatory provisions for sentencing which are outside of these recommended sentencing guidelines. The recommended guidelines are not intended to replace or override such statutory mandates. If a statutory mandate is in conflict with what is contained in the recommended guidelines, the statutory mandate prevails. Below is a list of the provisions that may apply:
